

Austin Palmer Pitts

301 Charleston Drive, Friendswood, TX 77546

832-425-5282

apitts175@tamu.edu

Major : BS in Computer Science

Minor : Business

Skills Professional work skills and experience as a

- Windows Server administrator
- Web developer
- Software engineer
- Database engineer

Work Paid Internship for SK Global Software - Banking Automation

- Worked part time during spring of 2021 (~20hours/week), and full time during summer of 2021 (~40hours/week), was given opportunity to continue part time in upcoming fall of 2021
- Have been a part of multiple development teams involving group development
- Experience at the professional level working with
 - Git C# C++ SQL APIs
 - Web development frontend and backend
- Projects worked on
 - Database migrations and database design
 - Web development for the company's customer portal involving both frontend and backend development
 - C++ software development for utility used by the company

IT and Server Admin Summer Internship for BigTech Houston

- Protected and stored highly confidential data and maintained its security
- Performed setup and maintenance of servers for private companies
- At the end of the internship was offered employment for BigTech Houston
- Familiarity with working with customers due to the nature of IT
- Wrote scripts to improve efficiency of server maintenance

Comp Sci Used individual study to write and teach a data analysis neural network

Extracurricular regarding text input to determine the tone of writing, ex - anger, sarcasm,

Experience humor

Earned 1st place in the Problem Solving category of the UH:CL Computer Science and Logic Competition

Member of the Texas A&M Data Analytics Club

Education A&M College Station : 3.75 GPA

A&M Engineering Honors Program : Top 10% of A&M Engineering Students

References

Richard Whisennand/business owner/richard@bigtechhouston.com
Scott Caudle/SKG internship CEO/scaudle@sksoft.com